Proof of citizenship is required by law and specified in the Cruise Ticket Terms and Conditions which you are bound to, which state: "At the time of embarkation the Passenger is responsible for having received all medical inoculations necessary for the voyage and having in his/her possession the Cruise Ticket, valid passport, visas, medical card and other documents necessary for the scheduled ports of call and disembarkation." All U.S. citizens who travel abroad are required to carry a passport valid for six months after the end of the cruise.
GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS
Traveling Together Inc., the Tour Operator, and its representatives act only as independent contractors acting on behalf of neither the customer nor the suppliers and principals and has no responsibility whatsoever in whole or in part for any occurrences, including but not limited to, any delay, loss, accidents, personal injury, sickness, medical expenses, or property damage occasioned by fault or negligence of any person, employee or company entrusted with the performance of such service from whatever cause. The entire Terms and Conditions that form the Ticket Contract by which you are bound are available on the Crystal Cruises' website at www.crystalcruises.com. All documents and tickets, whether paper or electronic, are issued subject to the terms and conditions under which such means of transportation, accommodations, and other services are offered or provided. The issuance and acceptance of such documents shall be deemed to be consent to the further conditions. Traveling Together Inc. does not own nor operate the hotels, motor coaches, airlines, cruise lines, or any other service providers which compose their tours, and will not be held responsible for changes and/or cancellations for any reason by airlines, hotels or cruise ships.
Traveling Together Inc. shall not be in any way liable for injury, damage, loss, accident, delay, or irregularity in any vehicle, or through the act of default of any company, or person engaged in conveying passengers, or of any hotel proprietor, personnel, servant or any other person otherwise in connection therewith. Traveling Together Inc. shall not be held responsible for any potential risks and hazards associated with travel to destinations included in this program, where injury, delay, or unanticipated events may occur. Traveling Together Inc. shall not assume responsibility for standards of quality, hygiene, political stability, cuisine, sanitation facilities, diseases or viruses contracted while traveling for any cause, cleanliness, telecommunications facilities, methods of conducting business, emergency medical evacuation, treatment, or medical services found in these destinations. Travel to these areas may entail risks including but not limited to the hazards of traveling in politically unstable areas, civil disturbances, war, and arbitrary changes mandated by government authorities or private concerns. It is the responsibility of the passenger(s) to check with the U.S. State Department, Consular Information, http://travel.state.gov/travel/warnings.html for any current advisories and updates to the destinations on their itinerary. Traveling Together Inc. shall be held harmless from any and all liability in connection with the foregoing. Traveling Together Inc. cannot accept responsibility for loss or expense due to delay or changes in transportation schedule or other causes and shall not be held responsible for potential loss of services due to inclement weather conditions.
The guest is responsible for arriving at the point of departure, with all required documentation, at the time set forth in the tour documents. The guest has sole responsibility for determining his or her immigration requirements and obtaining appropriate documentation, including but not limited to visas, passports, etc. Most countries visited will require that your passport be valid for at least six months beyond the completion of your trip. Boarding will be denied for failure to possess the appropriate immigration documentation. The tour operator, their agents, cruise lines or resorts or the owner of the vessels or resorts shall have no obligation to refund any amount paid by the guest in the event the guest misses the departure of the vessel or other means of transfer as a result of the guest's failure to be at the point of departure as instructed.
